Let us know in writing if you change your mind. We are also required to notify you of a breach of your unsecured health information that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.

HOW DO WE USE OR DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION?

The following categories describe examples of the way we use and disclose health information without your written authorization:

We may also disclose your health information to third party "business associates" that perform various services on our behalf, such as transcription, billing and collection services. In these cases, we will enter into a written agreement with the business associate to ensure they protect the privacy of your health information to the same extent that we protect it.

You may also request (in writing) that we send a copy of your health information to anyone or any entity (e.g., a business, hospital, etc.) that you designate. Your written, signed request must clearly identify such designated person or entity and where you would like us to send the copy. If you request a copy of your health information, we may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Right to Ask Us to Correct Your Medical Record: You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask our Privacy and Security Officer how to request this. We may say no to your written request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Right to Get a List of Those With Whom We've Shared Information: You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your health information in the six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). Contact our Privacy and Security Officer for more information on how to make your request in writing.

The first accounting you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional accountings, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee. We will notify you of the costs involved and give you an opportunity to withdraw or modify your request before any costs have been incurred.

Right to Choose Someone to Act for You: If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
